

By becoming an Advocate Firm, your organization supports evidence-based design (EBD) and the EDAC program. Your support will position you as an industry leader, help advance the field, and motivate others to become EDAC accredited. The EDAC Advocate Firms partner with The Center for Health Design (CHD) to promote EBD and the significance of research to the healthcare design community.

What is an EDAC Advocate Firm?

An EDAC Advocate firm is an organization that dedicates 25% or more of its healthcare team to taking and passing the EDAC exam within one year of its commitment date.

Advocate Firm Benefits:

- 20% off the cost of the exam price of $285. Advocate Firm price $228.00
- 20% off the cost $160 price for the Study Guide Series. Advocate Firm price $128
- Joint Press Release announcement with CHD
- Use of the Advocate Firm and EDAC logo
- Recognition on the EDAC and CHD websites
- Template PPT slides to use in presentations and talking points
- Additional marketing support from CHD for promoting EDAC and Advocate Firm status

Become An EDAC Advocate

Once we hear from you, the first step is to set up a call with your team or decision makers. On this call we will discuss the benefits and logistics more fully. Once you have agreed to the terms and conditions, CHD will send a letter stating the benefits and conditions of being an Advocate Firm. This letter will be dated to show your commitment date.

Exam Logistics

The EDAC exam application is available on the EDAC website at www.healthdesign.org/edac. On the exam application, be sure to mark "Advocate Firm" under CHD status, and your discounted price.
